COMMUNITY CLEANUP FRIDAY

Earth Day has been celebrated on April 22 every year since 1970. In 1990 Earth Day became a global observance (previously it was only in the USA) and transformed into a global effort to make as much of a positive difference on one day out of the 365 a year that we spend creating waste. This Friday, you can help make a difference right here in Eastend by meeting at the town square at 10:45am. Bring your own gloves.

Lost Binocular Caps on Spruce

Our current Stegner House resident has dropped some binocular caps while out walking. Would any Eastender have seen it? Here's her request:

Somewhere on Spruce Avenue North. If found please drop off in the Stegner House porch before April 28th. With many thanks, Caroline Woodward Stegner House April writer-in-residence"

Stegner Dinner Write Up

Dr. Anne Davis has submitted this week's article on the Eastend Arts Council's Stegner House Dinner which returned this year to success. It took me a while to find space, sorry it was so delayed Dr. Anne!. The next event coming up for the Eastend Arts Council will be the live music stylings of Jeffrey Straker on Saturday, April 29th. Check inside for details.

Eastend Agencies Closed Friday

This week is the annual SGI (Saskatchewan Government Insurance) convention. Your local SGI will be closed Friday April 21 to get up to speed on the latest from the world insurance. To mark Bonnie's 20th year as owner of Eastend Agencies, there will be an open house at the Eastend Agencies office on May 1 from 2-5pm.

Advertising Rates Are Going Up

The Eastend Echo has maintained the same advertising rates for the past 12 years. Starting in May, we will be increasing the weekly rate from $15 to 20 and the monthly rate from $50 to $70. I thank everyone for their understanding.

Annual Stegner Celebration and Fundraiser

Eastend Arts Council's Annual Stegner Celebration and Fundraiser held February 11, 2023 in Eastend Memorial Hall was a great success because of the many individuals who helped out and for those that attended the event! Thank you to the generous individuals who donated fundraising items, and to those who donated their time, their talent or their help! Thank you to those who attended the event and participated in the fundraising!

The Annual Stegner Celebration and Fundraiser is the Arts Council's main fundraiser of the year and has been held for over 30 years! The objective of this Celebration is to bring cultural & artistic presentations to the community and to fundraise for the ongoing operation & maintenance of the Wallace Stegner House in Eastend.

The Stegner House is a residence for writers and artists and has hosted guests from across Canada and internationally since the house opened in 1989.

Our guest speaker was Michelle Good, award winning Canadian author of Five Little Indians. Following dinner, attention turned to the stage where Michelle was interviewed by Robin Berg of Regina. Robin questioned about the characters in the book, what it was like being a best selling author, about Truth and Reconciliation, and what led Michelle to move to Maple Creek. Michelle spoke passionately and honestly, giving us insight into past and hope for the future.

Thank you Robin. And thank you to Michelle.

Darrell Morvik, Duane Morvik, both of Eastend, and Ted Warawa, of Regina, provided great music throughout the evening... a huge thank you to these three talented musicians for donating their time and talent. Certainly the evening was greatly enriched!

The Stegner reading, a tradition at the Stegner Celebration, was aptly given by current February Stegner House resident Danny Peart. Danny is a published author from Vancouver, BC.

Dinner was prepared by your Eastend Arts Council members with the help of Anne Arnal & Cleo Morvik. Darrell Morvik prepared the Stuffed Roasted Pork Loin. This entrée was accompanied by roast potatoes donated by Riversbend Farm, and by a creamy coleslaw and a lemon parsley bean salad. Bannock with Saskatoon berry sauce & whipped cream topping off the meal. The Bannock was donated to Living Sky Casino in Swift Current.

The following donated prizes to our Silent Auction:

Michelle Good, Mystic Moments, Candace Savage, Melanie Boyd, Janette Eglund, Jaime Morvik, Lars Hauk, Mae Gleim, Duane Bristow, Trea Jensen, Brenda Barker. Emily Morvik/Twisted Designs, Kilted Butcher, Hugh Dorward, My Home Florist/Samantha Taylor, Bettina Matzhuhn, Darrell & Shelley Morvik/ Riversbend Farm, Kevin Bristow/Esperance Farm.

Donations to our Wine Wall include from the following:

Randy Johnson, Robert Gebhardt, Val Gordon, Raptor Rounds, Stephanie Waymen, Julie Kerr, Connie Sykes, Anne Arnal, Scott Morvik, Roxie Binkley, Access Real Estate, Krankys, Stew & Cyndi Tasche, Wally & Jean Pearson, Chantal & Corey Henderson, Mary Bethel, Geraldine & Ralph Jacobson.

Other monetary or in kind donations were received from:

Brian Webster, Ian Johnson, James Wilson, Wayne Morgan, Melissa & Clayton Osinski, Eberhardt and Lisa Renner, Vivienne Beisel, Cleo & Kerry Gordon.

Thank you to our friends at Krankys for collecting our wine donations and for selling our event tickets! Ongoing appreciation to you for selling event tickets for all the local groups!

Thank you to Hugh Dorward for his ongoing volunteerism with the Stegner House

Also a huge thank you of course to our friends and family for help throughout the evening in the bar and kitchen and especially clean up!!!

Important Bios!:

Michelle Good is a Cree writer and lawyer, as well as a member of Red Pheasant Cree Nation in Saskatchewan. She is now living in Maple Creek. After working for Indigenous organizations for twenty-five years, Ms Good obtained a law degree and advocated for residential school survivors, telling the stories of residential school survivors in courtrooms. Ms Good then earned a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing at the University of British Columbia while practising law and managing her own law firm. In 2020, she published her first novel, Five Little Indians, a national bestseller and multiple award-winning book that aims to deepen understanding of not just what happened in those schools, but what came after. Awards include the 2020 Governor General's Literary Award for fiction and the 2021 Amazon Canada First Novel Award. It was also on the 2020 Writers's Trust Fiction Prize shortlist and 2020 Scotiabank Giller Prize longlist. Five Little Indians won the CBC Canada Reads for 2022 and it has just been selected as the Saskatchewan Libraries 2023 One Book One Province.

Robin Berg has been a reader her entire life and educator for over 30 years, mainly in high school ELA classrooms. After retiring from education, Robin worked with Regina Public Library. As a programmer, a highlight was introducing readers to great books and interviewing authors, notably Guy Vanderhaeghe (August into Winter), Lyndon Penner (Way of the Gardener), Koja Adeyhoa (47,000 Beads), and Lynne Reid Banks (Indian in the Cupboard).

Darrell Morvik started playing percussion way back in high school band class. He played drums with a couple of bands many years ago, but most recent and longest lasting, was with The Ranchmen. Darrell loves music of all different styles, but especially the ones that move you to tap your toes or clap your hands. Music is the universal language after all!

Dwane Morvik began piano music lessons in the very early 1970's starting in Eastend and finishing in Shaunavon in 1981. Somewhere along the way school band came but the life of a tuba player is a tough one so he picked up the bass guitar and 6 string by learning from a well used collection of Buck Owens records. High school saw the formation of a country rock band with brother Darrell and some other like minded locals from the school choir. From there he moved on to play with a few other groups but garnered little fame and even less fortune playing guitar and keyboards with the local country and western group called, The Ranchmen. He credits his Mom for making him take all those early piano lessons saying, "Music is the one thing you can do in life until you can't do anything else."

Ted Warawa has played the guitar for a variety of rock, blues, and jazz bands. When he's not at his desk job or taking care of business at home or the cabin, he can be found strumming his guitar in the living room or with the members of Juss Sayin', a Regina based jazz and blues band that plays mostly for their own enjoyment, but on occasion lights up the stage at Bushwackers!

Again our thanks to everyone for their support! Upcoming EAC events:

Eastend Arts Council hosts monthly Under the Roof Artist's Series featuring the current Stegner House resident. This month, journalist Megan Cole is scheduled for Thursday, March 23.

Tickets now available to see Jeffery Straker April 29th, 2023 in Eastend!! Plans are underway for Missoula Childrens Theatre this fall.
