LORI KOPP WINS SECA AWARD

Congratulations to Lori for winning the Assistant/Supervisor from a Single Site Centre SECA (Saskatchewan Early Childhood Association) Award of Excellence. This award recognizes demonstration of commitment of balancing "on the floor" Early Childhood Education involvement and management skills to organize and develop a professional early years program. One of Lori's strengths is the magic she makes in the kitchen. A well-fed child is a child that's ready to learn, and Lori's cooking is locally famous at Alleykatz.

YEARS GONE BY APRIL BY LORRAINE ARMSTRONG

100 Years Ago – 1923

A Karakul sheep ranch at Dollard proves to be a success. The sheep, coming from Russia, are hardy, good at foraging and seem to be thriving here. Owned by Dr. Patrick of Calgary, there are 272 grades and 12 pure bred - some are range sheep and Oxfords.

In the Robsart news, born on April 1st to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Durrant a set of twins, a boy and a girl.

Mr. Adolphe Schultz, of the Stone District, returned home after spending the winter in Germany. Although a comparatively poor man in this country, he was ranked in the millionaire class in the Old Land.

Mrs. C.D. Prosser, Climax, had the honor of driving the golden spike at the end of the steel last week. The town, which is barely 6 weeks old, has made great progress.

Dr. Pomeroy went to Ravenscrag to inoculate the school children for diphtheria.

90 Years Ago – 1933

For Easter, a farmer on the south bench, who asks that his name be unmentioned, has kindly given 40 dozen eggs for distribution among needy families in Eastend.

The Irishmen in the Atkins area are determined to have some sport this summer. They are building a race course on George Marten's farm, where George has already erected a grandstand about 300 yards SE of his farm.

80 Years Ago – 1943

Bill Thompson, of Oregon passed away. He will be remembered as homesteading on the north bench where Jake Bentz lives. In 1914 Bill erected the CPR water tank at Ravenscrag and the following spring built the hardware store for Jake Remple at Ravenscrag.

In the April 1st news, "If there has been higher water in the spring, we don't remember it!" Water has reached its high point and residents along the river at the west end of town had water lapping at their doors. The PFRA tried to prevent flooding of basements by draining water into the irrigation ditches. 3' of water covered the road running west from the west steel bridge. At the east end of town, a stretch of water about 500' wide covered the highway stopping all traffic. Survivors at the Mah and Humphrey islands are well, but not happy. The water is subsiding as rapidly as it rose and has dropped about 2'.

Motor vehicles will carry only 1 license plate this year and must be attached to the rear of the vehicle. This change is made to save metal used in the war effort.

Mont and Earl Taylor returned home from Regina cattle show where Mont purchased a 3 yr. old Hereford bull. This new addition to his herd won 3rd prize in its class.

Mrs. Sarah Pollock, wife of the late Dan Pollock, member of the NWMP, passed away at her home. She was the second woman to take up residence in the Eastend district, coming in 1900 as a bride from Winnipeg. On her arrival at the Pollock ranch, she was greeted by a severe prairie fire and was obliged to 'dig in' and cook for a crowd of hungry firefighters.

Max Abrams is the new proprietor of the general store owned by Wm. Miller and will now operate under the name of Prairie Mercantile Co.

Under the arrangement of the Anti-TB league and the Dept of Education, teachers in Saskatchewan will be given free x-ray examinations. It is desirable that every teacher has an examination every 2 years until age of 40 and thereafter every 5 years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard and daughter left home at noon with no water problems but on returning a few hours later found the crossing near their ranch a raging torrent. Anticipating some difficulty they tied their car to a team and wagon (driven by Harold Gray and Ryott Barroby) to attempt the crossing, not realizing the depth of the water. The wagon and car were swept down the stream and water poured in the windows. Mr. Howard and daughter were able to crawl thro a window and Harold Gray was able to rescue Mrs. Howard. After a lapse of nearly a week, before being able to cross the stream, Mrs. Howard was taken to the hospital and is making a good recovery.

A prairie fire, started by a spark from a locomotive, burned off a half section of grass on the JW. Bartlett ranch.

A prairie fire south of Robsart travelled for about 6 miles before fire fighters were able to stop it near John Butala's buildings. The fire started from an old straw hut that had been burned last winter, high winds had fanned the smoldering straw and whipped it across a fire guard.

70 Years Ago – 1953

The Robsart Badminton Club held their annual tournament with Alga Schafer and Lorraine Dahl taking first in Ladies Doubles and Everett Austin and Irvin Brunas took first in the Men's.

The farm auction of Charles Gregory is advertised with Russel Herrick as the auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemper and family, of the Stone District, have taken up residence at the old dairy, after recently acquiring the property.

60 Years Ago – 1963

George Johnston, Bank of Montreal manager, welcomed about 200 people to the opening of extensive renovations to the Bank. An extension of about 450 square feet, air conditioning and a new streamlined counter with 3 teller wickets has been completed.

Rittinger and Ingram Construction advertise as building contractors and B&K Garage Body Shop advertise for mechanical and radiator repairs (Beveridge and Kemper).

Born to Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Breton at the Eastend Hospital, twin boys.

John Pearson, born in Sweden in 1872, emigrated in 1892 and farmed south of Ravenscrag. In 1946 he retired and moved to Eastend living just west of Bob Armstrong's. That street is named Pearson Street. He was survived by a brother Herman Pearson.

Ken Humphrey topped the list with donations at the local Amateur Show for the Anti-TB League of Saskathewan. Ken will now compete at Moose Jaw, playing the saxophone.

50 Years Ago – 1973

Billie Bock, age 88, passed away at the Eastend Union Hospital, following a brief illness. He had a zest for living and a wide variety of interests; farmer, politician, prospector, poet, writer and one of Saskatchewan's most colorful characters.

The Jack Busse ranch, southwest of Shaunavon on the Frenchman River, is listed for sale consisting of 7 deeded quarters and 19 of lease land.

A cash auction sale advertised at the farm of Chas. Widdifield, SE of Eastend. The auctioneer is R. (Bob) Nelson.

Mr. Albert Lacey, 86 years, passed away in Swift Current after a lengthy illness. He lived in the Loomis area before moving to Eastend where he built his own home on Red Coat Drive with the low rock fence in front. There are other low rock fences in town, were these built by Mr. Lacey?

Richard Davis, 64 yr. old Consul section man, was killed when the speeder he was driving was struck by a truck driven by Lewis Scheuermann at a railway crossing near Claydon. Frank Peschke of Consul was taken to Climax Hospital and Grant Brown, also of Consul, received minor bruises and contusions.

Tanys Hickerty of Eastend placed 1st in three different classes at the Shaunavon Music Festival. Margaret Sanders and Lyle Rebbeck are also to be commended for their fine accompaniment on piano and guitar for other performers who received top marks.
