STREET SWEEPING

The town is putting out notice that next week the town crew will be sweeping the streets. The main impediment to that job going smoothly and quickly are obstructions such as vehicles and waste bins. If everyone could take extra precaution and scan your roads for anything you can move out of the way to help, it will be a big help.

Updates from the Library

Thanks to Catherine for keeping us up to date on library happenings, here is the latest:

The Knit, Purl and Chat sessions are over for the summer now. Drop by to see some of the creative projects that people worked on this winter.

On Friday, April 21, in the Art Studio at Wolf Willow, we celebrated and honoured our Mother, Mary Russell Hodgins (nee Ramage) with a donation of $10,000.00 towards their Activity Fund! Mom, whom we all called Grams, passed away February 24th at Wolf Willow. She spent 3.5 years as a resident at Wolf Willow, where she blossomed and became a part of their wonderful community, of nurturing, caring, giving and happy staff. She loved all the activities they offered and looked so forward to her days there; totally enjoying the Music sing-along days and Entertainment events; going for outings to Consul for coffee or Pine Cree for a picnic; and drives that ended by stopping for ice cream; Bingo; Exercises; Trivia games and discussions (which she excelled at).

She especially enjoyed participating in the Art program, where her inner artist flourished. Through the Art Program she mingled with the school children on art projects, went to Missoula productions and other special school events.

It was awesome to watch her excitement and involvement – like helping make buns for supper. Her schedule was quite busy and she felt she was needed there to help with things or to participate . . . she didn't want to miss anything!

Who says you need to quit “doing” at 94 years young? Even the days we went to the ranch at Maureen's or Heidi's, after a couple hours, she'd be wanting to head home to Wolf Willow.

Thank you, Everyone at Wolf Willow for giving Grams such a beautiful place to live, and providing such a positive and loving experience to spend her final years. You will be missed by all of us Grams, your immediate family and your family at Wolf Willow!

Joan & Maureen Hodgins

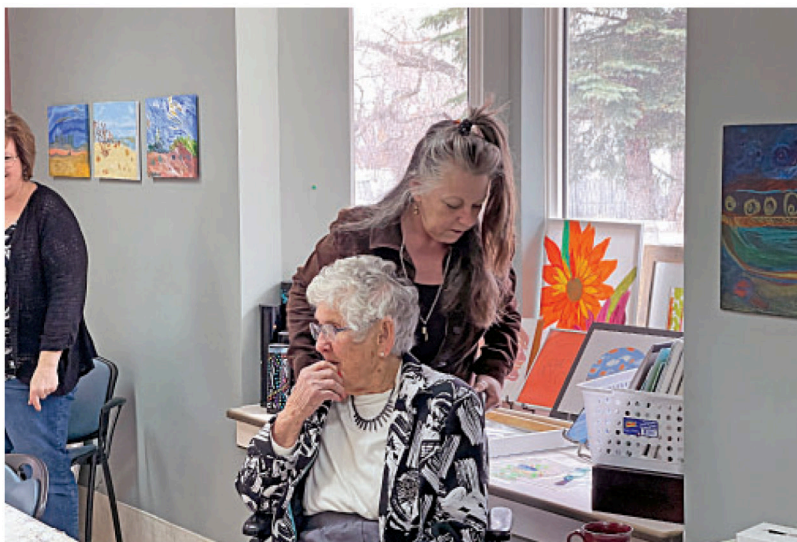

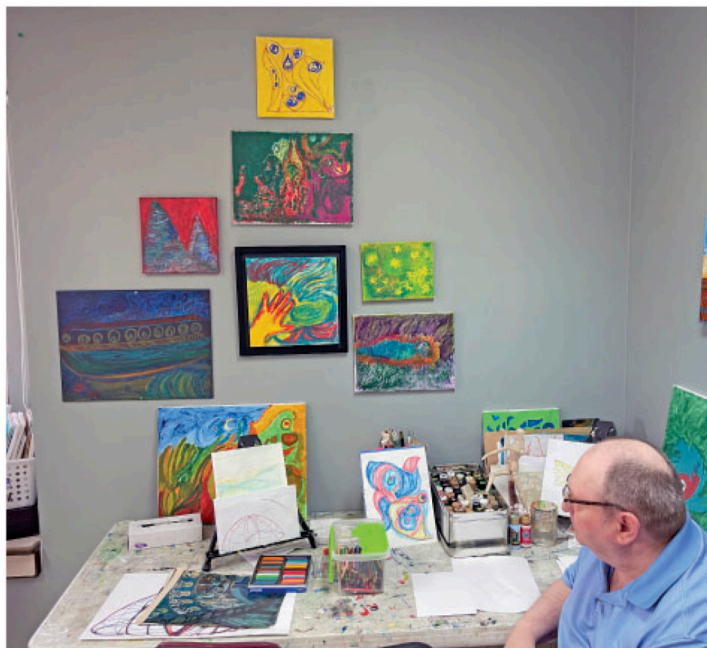

LIFE WELL LIVED

A life well lived is a precious gift,
of hope and strength and grace,
from someone who has made our world
a brighter, better place.

It's filled with moments, sweet and sad with smiles and sometimes tears,
with friendships formed and good times shared,
and laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy,
of joy and pride and pleasure,
a living, lasting memory
our grateful heart's will treasure.

A Visit to Wolf Willow's Art Room

It is sanctuary, therapy, meditation, and a way to express ones self when words won't or can't convey what needs to come "out". I spent a morning with the residents of Wolf Willow Health Centre in the art room in April. Joan and Maureen Hodgins were there to donate towards the art program, a program that their mother loved when she resided there. Speaking to resident Jack, he told me how much he personally benefitted from having an activity that provides stress management/cessation and something to keep his mind and body active. One thing we spoke about was how art can really draw out people who for one reason or another can be nearly unresponsive unless engaged in art. The health centre staff were very gracious and I want to thank them for letting us visit.

Doug Steele

Saskatchewan Party MLA for Cypress Hills

Our government recently passed the provincial 2023-24 Budget. I wanted to provide you with an overview of the budget and what it includes for you.

Saskatchewan is experiencing growth we haven't seen in more than a century, reaching a record 1.2 million people and 20,000 new jobs in 2022. Our economy is expected to carry its momentum into 2023, fuelled by strong commodity prices, increased private-sector investment and a rebound in crop production from the 2021 drought. This economic growth allows us to invest in the programs and services that make Saskatchewan a great place to live, work and raise a family.

This year's budget is built on a foundation of sound financial management, with a projected surplus of $1 billion. Our government will pay down the debt by up to $1 billion, allowing us to invest interest savings. There are no new taxes and no tax increases, helping keep life affordable.

Our government's record $6.9 billion health care investment includes initiatives to enhance care in rural and remote areas. To recruit family physicians, the Rural Physician Incentive Program was enhanced to $200,000 over five years. We are continuing to add 250 new full-time and expanding part-time positions in rural and remote areas. Over 100 of these positions have already been filled, increasing access to care for patients across the province. An $8.8 million investment will enhance emergency medical services across the province.

For education, the budget includes a record $4 billion investment. This includes $23 million for the Saskatchewan Distance Learning Corporation (Sask DLC). Sask DLC will offer over 180 courses for Kindergarten to Grade 12 students and is also open to adult learners. Registration is now open for the 2023-24 school year at SaskDLC.ca.

We can invest in health care and education because of a strong and growing economy. Saskatchewan added 20,000 jobs in 2022 and we are well on our way to achieving the Growth Plan goal of 100,000 more jobs by 2030. We have a record-high number of people working and the future looks bright for our economy.

Our government's goal, and the goal of this budget, is to ensure that growth continues. As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact my constituency office. We can be reached by phone at 306-672-1755 or email at steelemla@sasktel.net.

SPRING TIME IS CLEAN TIME

While we're cleaning the house and getting our gardens ready for the warmer weather, it's a great time to do some home maintenance to help protect against the elements.

Roof:

Insurers now depreciate your roof shingles in the event of a claim.

Check your roof shingles for curling edges, loose or shifted tiles, and cracks. Replace as needed.

Eavestrough/Downspout:

Water seeping into foundation over time is not covered under any insurance.

Protect your dwelling from water damage by ensuring eavestrough are cleared and downspouts are sufficient length and angle to draw water away from the house.

Foundation:

The best defense against water entering your basement is checking the foundation for cracks

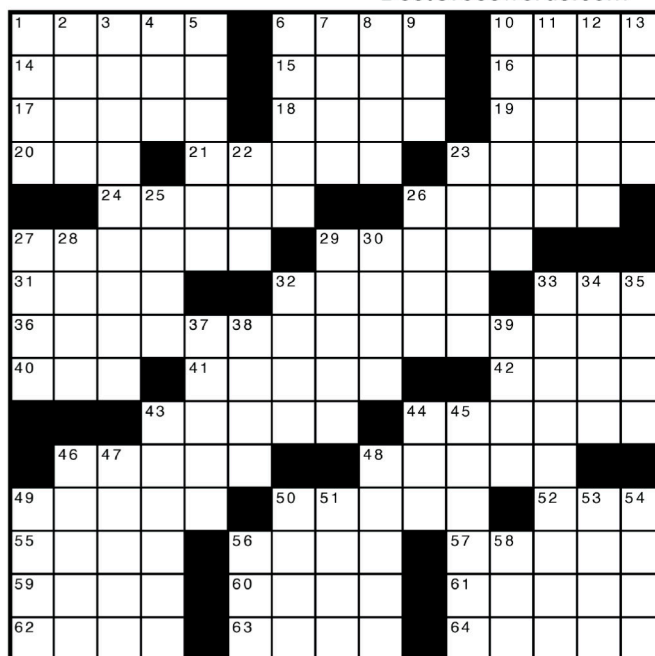

Do a complete survey of your foundation and seal or repair all cracks you can see.
