JOE VANSANDT WINS @ CALGARY STAMPEDE

Eastend's own Joe Vansandt is victorious at this year's Calgary Stampede, coming in first place in the steer riding event. What an amazing accomplishment for this young man just on the start of his career. Congratulations, Joe! Congratulations also go to Jared Parsonage from Maple Creek for winning the bull riding event. Two great feats from local young men to make their communities and families proud.

DINO DAYS 2023

This weekend is the big Summer weekend lots of us have been waiting for! After their 2022 debut as the new Dino Days Committee, Angie and Katherine have worked tirelessly since last year to put another banger of a Dino Days weekend together. Some of the must-see events are the craft beer gardens, food vendors and tradeshow all starting at 3pm on Friday. Softball is a huge part of Summer for lots of Canadians and the home run derby at 6 would be a perfect warm up to the fireworks at dusk. Start Saturday with the pancake breakfast at the Memorial Hall, then watch the parade at 10:30. The complete schedule is inside. This year there is a celebration of the life of artist Nick Saville (Brother to David, Susan, and Jim Saville), who passed away earlier this year.

Stacey Gleim Tournament Photos

Last Friday, the storm clouds were dark and the wind was whipping up something fierce until just before the golfers took to the green for the Stacey Gleim Memorial Tournament. The capacity crowd was treated to tasty bbq before a presentation of Stacey's framed Jets jersey was unveiled by Terry White, Charles Michel, and Scott Kerr. With that, the crowd was off to play a "quick" round before heading back to the clubhouse to find out the prize winners. Ian Topham and Craig Vansandt were the winning team, but lots of deserving people also won from the table full of donated prizes. We have photos from the tournament inside, as well as a "Thank You" from Bonnie Gleim.
