FRIDAY MARKET

Above are photos from the inaugural Friday Night Market including BBQ and live music. You can catch them Fridays all Summer in the town square. I can speak for those baked goods pictured above, top notch all the way.

GRAD 2024

As promised last week. This week is our Eastend Grad 2024 issue, featuring photos of this years grads along with well wishes from family. Good luck to all of the graduating class of our school and any one graduating this year from college or university. It's a scary but exciting time for all of you. It's corny but true, you have so much ahead of you. Valedictorian was Mason Osinski.

Scholarships/winners list: Kinette "Leshia" , Kinsmen "Bodie" , Stacey Gleim Memorial "Bodie" , Eastend Chamber "Wyatt" , SCC "Lucas" , Wallace Stegner "Wyatt" , Shaunavon Music Festival "Mason" , Legion "Bodie"

CANADA DAY AT EASTEND HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Part of the celebrations in Eastend this Canada Day will be free cake and coffee at the Eastend Historical Museum.

OSINSKI BROTHERS PERFORM LIVE

This Friday night at the Cypress Hotel the floor will be bumping with the live sounds of the Osinski Brothers who will be performing for the good people of Eastend. Music starts at 8pm and admission is free.

CORRECTION

Last week I incorrectly had a "Thank You" addressed to the Grade 6 class , it should have been "Thank You To Miss Moule's Grade 9 Art Class"

NO ECHO NEXT WEEK

I will be taking next week off to celebrate Canada Day. Even though Summer technically began with the Solstice on June 20, and the days will now start to get shorter and shorter, I still consider Canada Day to be my official beginning of Summer. I hope everyone has a great weekend.
