BUILD YOUR BREAKFAST BURRITO BAR

Saturday's Big Flat music festival is going to be a long day for a substantial number of people either attending or volunteering to help put on this unprecedented undertaking. Val is going to help you gain some good energy on Saturday morning. Not the usual pancakes breakfast, but a healthier and more flavorful option of a breakfast burrito. There will be locally grown sausage from RIVERSBEND Farm to include with your eggs and other toppings. There's even a gluten-free option. Entrance and breakfast is by donation, all proceeds go towards the Eastend Memorial Hall. Doors open at 7:30am at the Tea Room on Saturday.

PHOTO CATCH-UP

Part of our week off included a concert at the Cypress Hotel, Canada Celebrations, and a big donation from the Pastime Players to the Memorial Hall. We have photos of all those in this weeks Echo. The Osinski Bros. brought out the crowd on a beautiful Friday evening. It's been a while since I've had the pleasure of listening to them, and it was sure a delight to hear them bring the energy on Friday. Young Mason's voice has matured into one with more shape and subtle nuance than I remembered. I'm no music critique, it was just great!

Hall Donation From Pastime Players

The Pastime Theatre Players have not been active for a few years and It was decided the time had come to put the money sitting in their account to good use, It would be donated to the Eastend Memorial Hall, hardwood floor refurbishing fund. The Pastime group had always operated under the umbrella of the Eastend Memorial Hall and It was the groups intention to support the Memorial Hall with future improvements with any profits made. On behalf of The Pastime Theater Players, Pres. Laurie Reynolds presented a cheque for $ 3,982,77 to Alan Howard of the Memorial Hall Board.
